Homework for the Week of September 16th

- Practise your word wall words (first, next, then, finally, after)
- 2. Do the sheet below
- 3. Visit RazKids and Zorbits once you get the passwards

Once passwords go home homework can consist of Zorbits, RazKids and other online learning tools.

Author's Message: WHAT?

What is the author trying to tell you? It's often a life lesson!

Literacy - The Giving Tree

Math

Play Race to 50 or 100 with your parent Materials

- Dice
- 100 chart if needed
- Recording sheet

Instructions

- Each player takes turns rolling the two dice and adding them together (challenge - roll three, multiply the dice etc)
- On the recording sheet record your answer
- 3. Player 2 takes their turn
- On each subsequent play you add your total to the total on your recording sheet.
- 5. First person to 100 wins (Challenge Race to 200 etc.)

In class we have been working hard on author's message and author's purpose. We read 'The Giving Tree' on Friday. If your child wants to hear it again or if they were away here is the link. OR google The Giving Tree & Youtube. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Ybcr1HL7sq0

On the lines answer the following question: (You can write or your parent can write.)

What is the author's message and how do you know?

Remember it's important to prove your thinking by giving ideas from the text.

Answer in complete sentences. I think the author's message is

I think this because in the book.....